

COMMUNITY FUND

Funded by the National Lottery Community Funds

J.O.M. CHARITY
Improving Humanity through Art & Wellbeing

You are cordially invited to

'Re-generation'

Afro-Celtic Textile Art Exhibition

funded by the National Lottery Community Funds

Collaboration of JOM Charity (SCIO),
Johfrim Art & Design +
The Kakofoni Group

Wednesday, 1st September
Workshop & Seminar, Tie & Dye workshop with STITCH-ED Embroidery group led by Ruth Blakey and Jane.

Venue: Fraser Centre Milngavie
7 Douglas Street, Milngavie Town Centre, G62 6PA

Time: 6 to 9pm

Thursday, 2nd September
Tartan and Kilt making by Amanda Moffet of ScotClan.

Venue: Fraser Centre Milngavie
7 Douglas Street, Milngavie Town Centre, G62 6PA

Time: 10am to 2pm.

Saturday, 4th September
Afro-Celtic Textiles Exhibition and Afro-Celtic Food & Music Fest.

Venue: Gavin's Mill, Milngavie next to Tesco, 3 Gavin's Mill Road, Milngavie G62 6NB

Time: 4 to 7pm

Saturday, 11th September
The Scottish Gantry - 5 Mugdock Rd, Milngavie, Glasgow, G62 8PD

Whisky & Wine Tasting, along with Scottish Cheeses and other delicacy tasting by Alan Irvine.

Time: 2 to 6pm.

Saturday, 25th September
"Afro-Celtic International Carnival Day"

Exhibition, Workshops, Music, International Food & Drinks, Raffles.

Facilitators/Exhibitors-Members of Stitches, Chief Nike Davies-Okundaye, Vanessa Fletcher, Princess Iyase, Iain Macaulay, Men Matters, Chief Josephine Oboh-MacLeod (Johfrim) and Exhibition Show Piece "Afro-Celtic Wedding Couple" by Karen of Karen Alterations & Elaine Fleming of Foils Hairdressing. Stands with delicious food & drinks tasters.

Enquiries:

Josephine Oboh-MacLeod
+44 7900396707

www.jomcharity.com

www.johfrimartanddesign.com

Free tickets available on eventbrite

Johfrim Art & Design
Johfrim Art and Design

